FOREWORD.

Childhood is the impressible and important period of life. The child deserves the best. In the cultivation of his religious life, no pains should be spared in the home and in the Sunday-school to teach him good music. In the selection of this music, the law of variety must prevail. The melodies must be simple, sweet, and harmonious. Careful attention must be given to the words. It must not be forgotten that the impression made upon the child lies in the heart, as the seed in the soil, to be revealed in due time, and that hymns suitable to his wants need not always be on a level with his understanding. Hence, for the expression of religious sentiment, the old forms of Response, the Chant, and the Hymn are particularly suitable, and should find place in the regular Sunday-school program.

The attempt has been made in this book to combine musical variety with excellence, for the purposes of worship and praise. In addition, there are given suitable Orders of Service, Responsive Selections, Prayers, and Supplemental Graded Lesson Material for children between the ages of three and ten years.

In the use of this Hymnal, it will be found helpful to supply children with copies, so that they may learn to sing the hymns and study at home, thus interesting parents in their progress and securing proper co-operation for the teacher's work in the class.

Thanks are due, and are hereby tendered to, the American Baptist Publication Society, Eaton & Mains, F. E. Belden, David C. Cook Publishing Co., W. H. Doane, Edward A. Horton, Geibel & Lehman, J. H. Kurzenknabe, MacCalla & Co., H. R. Palmer, Mabel A. Wilson, Miss Bertha F. Vella, and others for the use of words and music; to many Primary teachers and to Miss R. H. Schively for valuable suggestions; and to Professor Fred C. Moyer for reading and revising proof. A number of the hymns are taken from the Sunday-school Hymnal, for which acknowledgment is hereby made.

The work is sent forth with the prayer that the Master will accept it as a humble effort to carry out His desire :

“Suffer the little Children to come unto Me.”

HEAR THY CHILDREN, GENTLE JESUS.

Tune.—"Jesus Loves Me."

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Hear Thy children, gentle Jesus,
While we breathe our evening pray'r;
Save us from all harm and danger,
Take us 'neath Thy sheltering care. | 3 Gentle Jesus ! look in pity
From Thy glorious throne above ;
Though we sleep, Thy heart is wakeful,
Still for us it beats with love. |
| 2 Shield us from the wiles of Satan,
From the perils of this night ;
Safely may the guardian angels
Keep us in their watchful sight. | 4 Shades of evening fast are falling,
Day is fading into gloom ;
When our earthly life is ended,
Lead Thy ransomed children home. |

SEE AMID THE WINTER'S SNOW.

7s. D.

1 See amid the winter's snow,
 Born for us on earth below,
 See the tender Lamb appears,
 Promised from eternal years.
 Lo, within a manger lies
 He who built the starry skies;
 He, who throned in height sublime,
 Sits amid the Cherubim.

2 Say, ye holy shepherds, say,
 What your joyful news today;
 Wherefore have ye left your sheep
 On the lonely mountain steep?

"As we watched at dead of night,
 Lo, we saw a wondrous light,
 Angels singing peace on earth,
 Told us of the Savior's birth."

3 Sacred Infant, all divine,
 What a tender love was Thine;
 Thus to come from highest bliss
 Down to such a world like this.
 Teach, O teach us, Holy Child,
 By Thy face so meek and mild,
 Teach us to resemble Thee,
 In Thy sweet humility.

Not too slowly.

1. Once in Beth-le - hem of Ju-dah, Far a - way a - cross the sea,
2. It was not a state-ly pal-ace Where that lit - tle Ba - by lay,
3. But the ox-en stood around Him In a sta - ble, low and dim ;
4. For He left His Father's glo-ry, And the gold-en halls a - bove,

There was laid a lit - tle Ba - by On a Vir - gin Moth - er's knee.
 With His servants to at - tend Him, And with guards to keep the way.
 In the world He had cre - a - ted There was not a room for Him !
 And He took our hu - man na - ture In the great - ness of His love.

3 Shepherds sat upon the ground,
Fleecy flocks were scattered round,
When a brightness filled the sky,
When a voice was heard on high
On the Christmas morning.

5 For a little Babe that day
Cradled in a manger lay,
Born on earth our Lord to be;
This the wondering angels see
On the Christmas morning.

4 "Joy and peace!" the angels sang;
Far the pleasant echoes rang;
"Peace on earth, to men good-will!"
Hark! the angels sing it still
On the Christmas morning.

6 Joy our little hearts shall fill,
Peace and love, and all good-will;
This fair Babe of Bethlehem
Children loves, and blesses them
On the Christmas morning.

One bright star out - shi - neth, Watch - ing si - lent - ly. A - men.

3 Fear not, then, to enter,
Though we cannot bring
Gold or myrrh or incense
Fitting for a King.
Gifts He asketh richer,
Offering costlier still,
Yet may Christian children
Bring them if they will.

4 Brighter than all jewels
Shines the modest eye;
Best of gifts, He loveth
Infant purity.
Haste we, then, to welcome
With a joyous lay
Christ, the King of glory,
Born for us to-day.

WATCHMAN, TELL US OF THE NIGHT.

Tune,—“Watchman.” 7s. D.

JOHN BOWRING, 1825.

- 1 Watchman, tell us of the night,
 What its signs of promise are;
 Traveler, o'er yon mountain's height,
 See that glory-beaming star!
 Watchman, does its beauteous ray
 Aught of joy or hope foretell?
 Traveler, yes; it brings the day,
 Promised day of Israel.
- 2 Watchman, tell us of the night;
 Higher yet that star ascends;
 Traveler, blessedness and light,
 Peace and truth, its course portends;
- Watchman, will its beams alone
 Gild the spot that gave them birth?
 Traveler, ages are its own;
 See, it bursts o'er all the earth!
- 3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
 For the morning seems to dawn;
 Traveler, darkness takes its flight,
 Doubt and terror are withdrawn;
 Watchman, let thy wanderings cease;
 Hie thee to thy quiet home!
 Traveler, lo, the Prince of Peace,
 Lo, the Son of God is come!

COME, PRAISE YOUR LORD AND SAVIOR.

W. W. How.

St. Gall's Coll.

1. Come, praise your Lord and Sav - ior In strains of ho - ly mirth !

Give thanks to Him, O chil - dren, Who lived a child on earth ;
D.S.—His lov - ing arms em - braced them And for their sake He died.

He loved the lit - tle chil - dren, And called them to His side,

2 O Jesus, we would praise Thee
 With songs of holy joy ;
 For Thou on earth didst sojourn
 A pure and spotless boy.
 Make us like Thee, obedient,
 Like Thee from sin-stains free,
 Like Thee in God's own temple,
 In lowly home like Thee.

3 O Jesus, we would praise Thee,
 The lowly maiden's Son :
 In Thee all gentlest graces
 Are gathered into one.
 O give that best adornment
 The Christian child can wear,
 The meek and quiet spirit
 Which shone in Thee so fair.

4 O Lord, with voices lifted
 We sing our songs of praise ;
 Be Thou the light and pattern
 Of all our child-hood's days ;
 And lead us ever onward,
 That while we stay below
 We may, like Thee, O Jesus,
 In grace and wisdom grow.

 { In - fant mar - tyr's gathered round Thee, And, un - con - sci - ous, for Thee died. }

D.C.—Not by speak - ing, but by dy - ing, Slaught'ered babes pro - claim Thy praise.

Not by speak - ing, but by dy - ing, Slaught'ered babes proclaim Thy praise ; A - men.

2 Hail, sweet band of lovely infants,
 Welcoming the holy Child,
 First-fruits of His martyr-glory,
 Innoceat and meek and mild.
 ||: Not by willing, but by dying,
 They gave up their all for Thee. :||

3 Jesus, holy Child from heaven,
 Who for children wast a child,
 Lambs upon Thine altar laying,
 Make us humble, meek, and mild;
 ||: That in living and in dying
 We may evermore be Thine. :||

JESUS BIDS US SHINE.

1 Jesus bids us shine
 With a pure, clear light,
 Like a little candle,
 Burning in the night;
 In the world is darkness,
 So we must shine,
 You in your small corner,
 And I in mine.

2 Jesus bids us shine
 First of all for Him.
 Well He sees and knows it
 If our light grows dim;
 He looks down from heaven
 To see us shine,
 You in your small corner,
 And I in mine.

3 Jesus bids us shine
 Then, for all around;
 For many kinds of darkness
 In the world are found,
 Sin and want and sorrow;
 So we must shine,
 You in your small corner,
 And I in mine.

E. E. HEWITT.

D. B. Towner.

1. Hark! there's a message from o-ver the sea, "Send us the light! wonderful light!"
2. O, let us will-ing-ly an-swer to-day; "Send out the light! wonderful light!"
3. Send them the Bible, 'twill shine like a star; "Send out the light! wonderful light!"
4. Tell them of Je-sus; His mer-cy will bring "Heav-en-ly light! wonderful light!"

Ear-nest-ly call-ing to you and to me, "Send us the light of God!".....
 Each lov-ing gift bears a beau-ti-ful ray; Won-der-ful light of God!.....
 Chas-ing the dark, gloomy shadows a - far; Won-der-ful light of God!.....
 Then in His glo-ry to-geth-er we'll sing, Sing in the light of God..... light of God.

REFRAIN.

Send..... out the light!..... Tell the sweet story, so precious, so bright,
 Send out the light, the wonderful light,

Send..... out the light,..... Won-der-ful light of God.
 Send out the light, the won-der-ful light,

1. As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid-ing star be-hold,
 2. As with joy-ful steps they sped To that low-ly man-ger-bed;
 3. Ho-ly Je-sus, ev-'ry day Keep us in the nar-row way;
 4. In the heav-en-ly coun-tr'y bright, Need they no cre-a-ted light;

As with joy they hailed its light, Lead-ing on-ward, beam-ing bright;
 There to bend the knee be-fore Him whom heav-en and earth a-dore;
 And, when earth-ly things are past, Bring our ran-somed souls at last
 Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown, Thou its Sun which goes not down,

So, most gracious Lord, may we Ev-er-more be led to Thee.
 So may we with will-ing feet Ev-er seek the mer-cy-seat.
 Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds Thy glory hide.
 There for-ev-er may we sing Al-le-lu-ias to our King. A-men.

 In the Jewish synagogue, on the Sabbath day ; In the humble Nazareth what did Je-sus say ?
 To the chief priests who sought to turn them all a - way, From the Mount of Zion what did Je-sus say ?
 When He gently told them He must go a - way, At the Lord's last supper what did Je-sus say ?
 Looking on His enemies, in their dark ar-ray, From that cross of sorrow what did Je-sus say ?
 All their sins forgiven, in that bless-ed day, On the hills of heaven what will Je-sus say ?

E. E. HEWITT.

- 1 Buds and blossoms of the spring,
Bloom to praise the heav'nly King;
Let the joyful news be spread,
Christ is risen from the dead.
- 2 Empty now the Savior's tomb;
Light is shining through the gloom;
He is living evermore
On the bright eternal shore.—REF.

REFRAIN.

Ever living, loving Friend,
Now to Thee our songs ascend;
Make us pure in heart, that we May the heav'nly vision see.

- 3 Teach us, Savior, day by day,
Walking with us by the way;
May our hearts within us burn,
While still more of Thee we learn.—REF.

Christ is risen from the dead,
 For since by man came death,
 For as in Adam all die,

And become the first fruits of them that slept.
 By man came also the resur - rec - tion of the dead.
 Even so in Christ shall all be made a - live. A - men.

HUSHED WAS THE EVENING HYMN.

JAMES DRUMMOND BURNS.

Arr. from Sir Arthur Sullivan.

1. Hushed was the eve - ning hymn, The tem - ple courts were dark ;

The lamp was burning dim Be - fore the sa - cred ark ; When sud - den - ly a voice di - vine Rang thro' the si - lence of the shrine.

2 The old man, meek and mild,
The priest of Israel, slept ;
His watch the temple-child,
The little Levite, kept ;
And what from Eli's sense was sealed,
The Lord to Hannah's son revealed.

3 O give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O Lord,
Alive and quick to hear
Each whisper of Thy word ;
Like him to answer at Thy call,
And to obey Thee first of all.

4 O give me Samuel's mind
A sweet, un murmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To Thee in life and death ;
That I may read with child-like eyes
Truths that are hidden from the wise,

"The Story of Pentecost."

E. E. HEWITT.

G. Froelich.

1. Before our Savior rose on high, In clouds as-cend-ing to the sky,
 3. He gave them too a strange command, (So . . . seemed it to the lit - tle band,)
 5. Then was fulfilled the promise old ; This . . . was the day so long fore-told ;
 7. O Lord, in Jesus' name, we pray, Be this our Pen-te-cost - al day,

He called His friends, the faithful few, And . . gave them work for Him to do.
 To tarry in Jerusalem Till heavenly pow'r should come to them.
 "Rejoice, O Zion, in the Lord, My Spir - it then shall be outpoured."
 And may Thy Spirit, like a dove, Fill ev - ery heart with peace and love.

2. He knew their weakness and their needs, A - lone, they nev - er could suc - ceed :
 4. With one accord they watched and prayed, Their trusting hearts on Je - sus staid ;
 6. Then were they brave to testify Of Je - sus, ris - en up on - high ;
 8. Then bravely, gladly, shall we tell Of Je - sus, our Em-man - u - el ;

"All power" was His, the world to save, And . . so this pre-cious word He gave.
 At Pentecost, the Spirit came With rush-ing wind and tongues of flame.
 They spoke in different tongues that all Might . . hear the bless-ed Gos - pel call.
 New tongues shall speak Thy grace Divine, And all the glo - ry shall be Thine.

JESUS, KING OF GLORY.

6s, & 5s. D

E. HARLAND.

1 Jesus, King of Glory,
 Thron'd above the sky,
 Jesus, tender Savior,
 Hear Thy children cry.
 Pardon our transgressions,
 Cleanse us from our sins,
 By Thy Spirit help us
 Heav'nly life to win.

2 On this day of gladness,
 Bending low the knee
 In Thine earthly temple,
 Lord, we worship Thee;

Celebrate Thy goodness,
 Mercy, grace, and truth,
 All Thy loving guidance
 Of our heedless youth.

3 For the little children,
 Who have come to Thee;
 For the glad, bright spirits
 Who Thy glory see;
 Jesus, King of Glory,
 Thron'd above the sky,
 Jesus, tender Savior,
 Hear our grateful cry.

THE SWEETEST WORDS I HAVE EVER READ.

MARGARETTE SNODGRASS.

J. M. S.

1. The sweetest words I have ever read Are the loving words that the Savior said:
2. O, how He part-ed the throng that pressed, And so ten-der-ly every child caressed!
3. I wonder what I should ev-er do, If the Sav-ior had on-ly called a few;
4. I grieve to think I should ever go Far away from Him who has loved me so;

“Suf-fer the children to come to me.” Who’d have ever tho’t of this but He?
 This is the gladness of all my song, That to this dear Sav-ior I be-long.
 Tak-ing the old, and the wise and great, O, I am so glad I need not wait.
 All thro’ my life this my song shall be, What the blessed Sav-ior’s done for me.

LITTLE GIVERS, COME AND BRING.

Tune.—“Spanish Hymn.” 7s. D.

1 Little givers, come and bring
Tribute to your heavenly King;
Lay it on the altar high,
While your songs ascend the sky;
Little givers, do your part
With a glad and willing heart;
For the angel voices say,
Little givers, give to-day.

2 Give to all the darkened earth
Tidings of a heavenly birth,
Till the youth in every land
Learn the Savior's sweet command;
Little givers, come and bring
Tribute to your heavenly King;
Lay it on the altar high,
While your songs ascend the sky.

WE SING A LOVING JESUS.

7s, & 6s. D.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 We sing a loving Jesus
Who left His home above,
And came to earth to ransom
The children of His love;
It is an oft-told story,
And yet we love to tell
How Christ, the King of glory,
Once deigned with man to dwell. 2 We sing a holy Jesus;
No taint of sin defiled
The Babe of David's city,
The pure and stainless child.
O teach us, blessed Savior,
Thy heavenly grace to seek,
And let our whole behavior,
Like Thine, be mild and meek. 3 We sing a lowly Jesus,
No kingly crown He had ;
His heart was bowed with anguish,
His face was marred and sad ; | In deep humiliation
He came, His work to do ;
O Lord of our salvation,
Let us be humble too. 4 We sing a mighty Jesus ;
Whose voice could raise the dead ;
The sightless eyes He opened,
The famished souls He fed.
Thou camest to deliver
Mankind from sin and shame ;
Redeemer and Life Giver,
We praise Thy holy name! 5 We sing a coming Jesus ;
The time is drawing near,
When Christ with all His angels
In glory shall appear ;
Lord, save us, we entreat Thee,
In this Thy day of grace,
That we may gladly meet Thee,
And see Thee face to face. |

O COME, DEAR CHILD, ALONG WITH ME.

L. M.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 O come, dear child, along with me,
And look on yonder clear blue sky,
The moon is shining bright, you see,
And stars are twinkling up on high. 2 'Tis there, my child, far, far above,
That heaven's eternal kingdom lies ;
There holy angels dwell in love,
And tears are wiped from off all eyes. | 3 It is a happy, happy place,
Without a sorrow, pain, or care ;
There you may see the Savior's face,
Who loves to take good children
there. 4 O, pray each night that God may bless
And keep you while on earth you stay,
And give you endless happiness,
When from the earth you pass away. |

Tune.—"Varina." C. M. D.

ISAAC WATTS.

- 1 There is a land of pure delight,
 Where saints immortal reign;
 Infinite day excludes the night,
 And pleasures banish pain.
 There everlasting spring abides,
 And never withering flowers;
 Death, like a narrow sea, divides
 This heavenly land from ours.
- 2 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
 Stand dressed in living green;
 So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
 While Jordan rolled between.
- But timorous mortals start and shrink
 To cross the narrow sea;
 And linger, shivering on the brink,
 And fear to launch away.
- 3 O could we make our doubts remove,
 These gloomy doubts that rise,
 And see the Canaan that we love
 With unobscured eyes;
 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
 And view the landscape o'er,
 Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold
 flood,
 Should fright us from the shore.

 Near Je-ru-sa-lem we see Ol-i-vet and Cal-va-ry.

WELCOME, PRECIOUS BABY.

Tune,—“Little Drops of Water.”

To be sung when receiving a baby or babies into the class. Change word “baby” to “babies” if need be.

JULIA H. JOHNSTON.

- 1 Welcome, precious baby,
 To our cradle roll,
 Here a place is waiting
 For each tiny soul.
- 2 On the earth our Savior
 Little children blessed,

- In His arms He took them,
 Held them to His breast.
- 3 Still He calls them to Him,
 No one is too small,
 For the tender Savior
 Loves and wants us all.

Let the little girls selected for this song appear in pretty white aprons, each carrying an infant doll, which she rocks in both arms at the lines indicated; then holds the doll with the left arm, leaving the right free for motions.

| 1 All things beautiful and fair,
Earth and sky and balmy air,
Sunny field and shady grove,
Gently whisper, “God is love!”
Ev’ry tree and flow’r we pass,
Ev’ry tuft of waving grass,
Ev’ry leaf and opening bud,
Seem to tell us, “God is good.” | 2 Little streams that glide along,
Soft green mossy banks among,
Shadowing forth the clouds above,
Softly murmur, “God is love!”
He who dwelleth high in heav’n,
Unto us has all things given;
Let us as through life we move,
Ever feel that “God is love!” |

I AM GOD’S LITTLE CHILD.

Tune.—“Lebanon.”

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 I am God’s little child,
Made by His loving hand;
These little eyes He made to see,
These feet He made to stand. 2 More wonderful I am
Than I shall ever know,
For to these limbs of mine is giv’n
The wondrous power to grow. 3 What can I do to please
The God so good to me?
I’ll daily try each hour to live
The life He loves to see. | 4 These feet shall stand for Him,
These eyes look on His face;
And as each year I grow in height,
I’ll try to grow in grace. 5 This tongue shall speak no word
His Spirit grieves to hear,
Nor shall this hand He made e’er cause
One needless pain or tear. 6 I’ll see how Jesus lived
By reading in His word,
And try to be His little child
Just following my Lord. |

HUSH, MY DEAR, LIE STILL AND SLUMBER.

8s, & 7s.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Hush, my dear, lie still and slumber;
Holy angels guard thy bed;
Heav’nly blessings, without number,
Gently falling on thy head. 2 Sleep, my babe; thy food and raiment,
House and home, thy friends provide;
And, without thy care or payment,
All thy wants are well supplied. 3 How much better thou’rt attended
Than the Son of God could be,
When from heaven He descended,
And became a child like thee! 4 Soft and easy is thy cradle;
Coarse and hard thy Savior lay,
When His birth-place was a stable,
And His softest bed was hay. 5 Blessed Babe! what glorious features!
Spotless fair, divinely bright!
Must He dwell with brutal creatures?
How could angels bear the sight? 6 Was there nothing but a manger
Cursed sinners could afford,
To receive the heav’nly Stranger?—
Did they thus affront the Lord? 7 Soft, my child, I did not chide thee,
Though my song might sound too hard. | ’Tis thy *mother sits beside thee,
And her arms shall be thy guard. 8 Yet to read the shameful story,
How the Jews abused their King,
How they served the Lord of glory,
Makes me angry while I sing. 9 See the kinder shepherds round Him,
Telling wonders from the sky;
Where they sought Him, there they found Him,
With His virgin mother by. 10 See the lovely Babe a-dressing.
Lovely infant, how He smiled!
When He wept, the mother’s blessing
Sooth’d and hush’d the holy Child. 11 Lo! He slumbers in the manger,
Where the horned oxen fed!—
Peace, my darling, here’s no danger,
There’s no ox a-near thy bed. 12 May’st thou live to know and fear Him,
Trust and love Him all thy days;
Then go dwell for ever near Him,
See His face, and sing His praise. 13 I could give thee thousand kisses,
Hoping what I most desire;
Not a mother’s fondest wishes
Can to greater joys aspire. |

WE COME TO LEARN OF JESUS.

7s, & 6s.

JULIA H. JOHNSTON.

1 We come to learn of Jesus—
This lesson, first of all :
We want to know Him better,
And hear His loving call.

2 The lesson sweet, of loving
O teach us now, we pray,
Lord, make us kind and gentle,
And more like Thee, each day.

REF.—O many are the lessons
From God's own Holy Word ;
This day, may Jesus help us
To keep what we have heard.

3 The lesson of forgiveness,
Of patience and of peace,
We long to learn more truly,
Till strife and evil cease.

4 We want to be more joyful,
Unselfish, pure, and meek,
And so to Christ we listen,
To hear what He will speak.

Opening and Greeting.

As we come to meet you here ;
May we learn of Christ to-day,
He will bless us on our way.

REF.—Yes, welcome, welcome,
Yes, welcome, welcome,
Here, all are welcome,
In Jesus' blessed name.

3 Welcome, welcome, scholars new,
Here's a pleasant place for you ;
Come and learn of Jesus' love,
Take the path that leads above.

WE COME THE GLAD MESSAGE OF JESUS TO TELL.

Tune.—“I Think When I Read that Sweet Story of Old.”

JULIA H. JOHNSTON.

1 We come the glad message of Jesus to tell,
The Savior who lived among men ;
Of His Childhood so meek let the little ones speak,
And tell the sweet story again.

2 For us He came down from His home in the skies,
A Child, full of goodness and love,
That the children might know how to follow below,
The Lord who is now gone above.

A Primary Class Graduation Exercise.

"A Welcome."

This happy season now brings 'round The Graduation Day. You've come to see what we have done, And cheer us on our way. You'll find we have not spent the year	In idleness and play. We're very glad to see you here, We welcome every one, And hope you'll all be glad you came, When everything is done.

After "Welcome" and the recitation of supplemental lessons, as required, by one of the graduates, all come forward and recite in concert, addressing the Primary Department:

Our glad promotion day has come, We go to join the higher class, But linger now to say goodbye Before to other ranks we pass. We grieve to leave you all to-day,	Dear teacher and dear classmates, too; We love and thank you for the past, As now we turn to lessons new. To harder work we hear the call: Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, to all.

The Junior Department, or whichever division of the school receives the recruits, recites:

Welcome to our ranks to-day, Here are waiting places;	Every Sunday, rain or shine, May we see your faces.

Graduates march slowly to join the division that awaits them, the scholars in the latter rising to meet them. Graduates sing to tune "What a Friend We Have in Jesus":

Here we come with joy to join you, We will try to learn with you, Lessons from the Holy Bible, Blessed lessons, sweet and true.	We are daily growing older, We would learn yet more and more; We would walk in Wisdom's pathways, Adding to our precious store.

The Juniors respond with the following, to same tune, and the Graduates join in latter half of the verse.

Welcome, welcome, you are welcome, There is work for all to do. There is knowledge to be gathered, There is joy to share with you.	Christ the Lord will be our Teacher, We must learn of Him each day, So may all who love and trust Him, Follow Jesus all the way.
---	---

"Birthday Offering."

Class stands, child comes forward, teacher holds the box for pennies, and recites:

The happy years, like singing birds, Are flying swiftly by; Another one is past and gone,	And brings the birthday nigh. How many now have passed away? How old are you, dear child, to-day?
---	---

Child gives the number, and teacher says:

Then drop a penny for each year,
An offering to the Savior dear.

While child drops pennies, class recites:

Give thanks for all the happy days That made the happy year,	And may the coming one be glad And full of help and cheer.
---	---

All sing to tune "What a Friend We Have in Jesus":

Take the gift of love, our Father, Use it for Thy work below, Bless the one who brings it to Thee, More like Jesus may he grow.	While the days are flying, flying, May we live as in Thy sight, May we learn of Him who loves us, Daily walking in the light.

Prayer for child by name, and for the cause for which offering is given, class repeating after teacher, sentence by sentence, teacher placing hand upon child's head.

Class, in concert "We wish you many happy birthdays." Birthday card may then be given."

Tune—"Antioch."

Joy to the world, the Lord is come !
Let earth receive her King,
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the world, the Savior reigns !
Let men their songs employ ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sin and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground ;
He comes to make His blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
And wonders of His love.

ISAAC WATTS, 1719.

227

Tune—"Coronation."

All hail the power of Jesus' name !
Let angels prostrate fall !
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Crown Him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from His altar call ;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all.

C. M.

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall,
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Sinners whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go, spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Let every kindred, every tribe
On this terrestrial ball
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

O, that with yonder sacred throng,
We at His feet may fall !
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown Him Lord of all.

EDWARD PERRONET, 1779.

228

Tune—"Italian Hymn."

6s. 4s.

Come, Thou Almighty King,
Help us Thy name to sing,
Help us to praise !
Father, all-glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of Days.

Come, Thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on Thy mighty sword ;
Our prayer attend !
Come, and Thy people bless,
And give Thy Word success ;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.

Come, Holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour !
Thou, Who Almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

To the great One in Three,
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore !
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore !

CHARLES WESLEY, 1757.

C. M.

O, for a thousand tongues to sing
My dear Redeemer's praise !
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace.

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad,
The honors of Thy name.

Jesus, the Name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease ;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.

He breaks the power of reigning sin,
He sets the pris'ner free ;
His blood can make the foulest clean ;
His blood availed for me.

He speaks, and, list'ning to His voice,
New life the dead receive ;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.

Hear Him, ye deaf ; His praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ ;
Ye blind, behold your Savior come ;
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

CHARLES WESLEY.

230

S. M.

Come, we who love the Lord.
And let our joys be known ;
Join in a song of sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.

Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God ;
But children of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.

Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry ;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

ISAAC WATTS.

Lord, I hear of showers of blessing,
Thou art scattering full and free !
Showers, the thirsty land refreshing ;
Let some droppings fall on me.

Let me live and cling to Thee ;

Tune—"Every Hour."

P. M.

I need Thee every hour,
Most gracious Lord ;
No tender voice like Thine
Can peace afford.

REFRAIN.

I need Thee, O, I need Thee,
Every hour I need Thee ;
O bless me now, my Savior,
I come to Thee !

I need Thee every hour ;
Stay Thou near by ;
Temptations lose their power
When Thou art nigh.—REF.

Come quickly and abide,
Or life is vain.—REF.

I need Thee every hour,
Teach me Thy will ;
And Thy rich promises
In me fulfill.—REF.

I need Thee every hour,
Most Holy One ;
O, make me Thine indeed,
Thou blessed Son !—REF.

ANNIE S. HAWKS, 1872.

233

Tune—"Williamson."

S. M.

We give Thee but Thine own,
Whate'er the gift may be ;
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

May we Thy bounties thus
As stewards true receive,
And gladly, as Thou blessest us,
To Thee our first fruits give.

To comfort and to bless,
To find a balm for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless
Is angels' work below.

The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace—
It is a Christlike thing.

And we believe Thy word,
Though dim our faith may be—
Whate'er for Thine we do, O Lord,
We do it unto Thee.

WILLIAM W. HOW, 1854

234

Tune—"Work."

P. M.

Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours ;
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid springing flowers ;
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun ;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon ;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon ;
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store ;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies ;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies ;
Work till the last beam fadeth—
Fadeth to shine no more ;
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

ANNA L. WALKER, 1860.

What a Friend we have in Jesus,
 All our sins and griefs to bear !
 What a privilege to carry
 Everything to God in prayer !
 O, what peace we often forfeit,
 O, what needless pain we bear—
 All because we do not carry
 Everything to God in prayer.

Have we trials and temptations ?
 Is there trouble anywhere ?
 We should never be discouraged,
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.
 Can we find a friend so faithful,
 Who will all our sorrows share ?
 Jesus knows our every weakness,
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy laden,
 Cumbered with a load of care ?
 Precious Savior, still our refuge—
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.
 Do thy friends despise, forsake thee ?
 Take it to the Lord in prayer ;
 In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
 Thou wilt find a solace there.

JOSEPH SCRIVEN.

How shall the young secure their hearts,
 And guard their lives from sin ?
 Thy Word the choicest rules imparts
 To keep the conscience clean.

When once it enters to the mind,
 It spreads such light abroad,
 The meanest souls instruction find
 And raise their thoughts to God.

'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
 That guides us all the day ;
 And, through the dangers of the night,
 A lamp to lead our way.

Thy precepts make me truly wise ;
 I hate the sinner's road ;
 I hate my own vain thoughts that rise,
 But love Thy law, my God.

Thy Word is everlasting truth ;
 How pure is every page !
 That Holy Book shall guide our youth,
 And well support our age.

ISAAC WATTS, 1719

Just as I am, without one plea,
 But that Thy blood was shed for me,
 And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee,
 O Lamb of God, I come!—I come !

Just as I am, and waiting not
 To rid my soul of one dark blot,
 To Thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
 O Lamb of God, I come!—I come !

Just as I am, though tossed about
 With many a conflict, many a doubt,
 Fightings and fears within, without,
 O Lamb of God, I come!—I come !

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind ;
 Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
 Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
 O Lamb of God, I come!—I come !

Just as I am ! Thou wilt receive,
 Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
 Because Thy promise I believe,
 O Lamb of God, I come!—I come !

Just as I am ! Thy love unknown
 Has broken every barrier down ;
 Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
 O Lamb of God, I come!—I come !

CHARLOTTE ELLIOTT, 1836.

Savior, like a shepherd lead us ;
 Much we need Thy tender care ;
 In Thy pleasant pastures feed us,
 For our use Thy folds prepare.
 ¶: Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
 Thou hast bought us, Thine we are. : ¶

We are Thine, do Thou befriend us ;
Be the guardian of our way ;
Keep Thy flock, from sin defend us ;
Seek us when we go astray.
||: Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
Hear Thy children when they pray. :||

Thou hast promised to receive us,
Poor and sinful though we be ;
Thou hast mercy to relieve us,
Grace to cleanse and power to free.
||: Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
Early let us turn to Thee. :||

Early let us seek Thy favor,
Early let us do Thy will ;
Blessed Lord and only Savior,
With Thy grace our bosoms fill.
||: Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
Thou hast loved us, love us still. :||
DOROTHY ANN THRUPP, 1838.

239 Tune—"Sabbath." 7s, 6 lines.

Safely through another week,
God has brought us on our way ;
Let us now a blessing seek,
Waiting in His courts to-day ;
Day of all the week the best,
Emblem of eternal rest.

While we pray for pardoning grace,
Through the dear Redeemer's name,
Show Thy reconciled face,
Take away our sin and shame ;
From our worldly cares set free,
May we rest this day in Thee.

Here we come Thy name to praise,
May we feel Thy presence near ;
May Thy glory meet our eyes,
While we in Thy house appear ;
Here afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting feast.

May Thy Gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners, comfort saints ;
May the fruits of grace abound,
Bring relief for all complaints ;

Thus may all our Sabbaths prove,
Till we join the Church above.
JOHN NEWTON, 1779.

240 Tune—"Olivet." 6s & 4s.

My faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Savior divine !
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
O, let me from this day
Be wholly Thine !

May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire.
As Thou hast died for me,
O, may my love to Thee
Pure, warm and changeless be,
A living fire !

While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my guide ;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Savior ! then, in love,
Fear and distrust remove ;
O, bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul !
RAY PALMER, 1830.

241 Tune—"Innocents." 7s.

Children of the heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing !
Sing your Savior's worthy praise,
Glorious in His works and ways !

We are traveling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod :
They are happy now, and we Soon their happiness shall see.

Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of your land ;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you, undismayed, go on.

Lord ! obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below ;
Only Thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow Thee.

JOHN CENNICK, 1742.

242

Tune—"Toplady."

7s, 6 lines.

Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee ;
Let the Water and the Blood,
From Thy riven side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure,
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

Not the labors of my hands
Can fulfill Thy law's demands ;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears forever flow,
All for sin could not atone,
Thou must save and Thou alone.

Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling ;
Naked, come to Thee for dress ;
Helpless, look to Thee for grace ;
Foul, I to the fountain fly ;
Wash me, Savior, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See Thee on Thy judgment-throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

AUGUSTUS MONTAGNE TOPLADY, 1776

243

Tune—"Wellesley."

There's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea ;
There's a kindness in His justice,
Which is more than liberty.

There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good ;
There is mercy with the Savior,
There is healing in His blood.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind ;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.

If our love were but more simple,
We should take Him at His word ;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

FREDERICK W. FABER.

244

Tune—"Warrington."

L. M

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run ;
His kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

From north to south the princes meet,
To pay their homage at His feet ;
While western empires own their Lord,
And savage tribes attend His word.

To Him shall endless prayer be made
And endless praises crown His head ;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His name.

ISAAC WATTS, 1719.

245

Tune—"Webb."

7s & 6s, D.

The morning light is breaking ;
The darkness disappears ;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears ;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

Rich dews of grace come o'er us
In many a gentle shower,
And brighter scenes before us
Are opening every hour ;
Each cry to heaven going
Abundant answer brings,
And heavenly gales are blowing
With peace upon their wings.

See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above ;
While sinners, now confessing,
The Gospel's call obey,
And seek the Savior's blessing—
A nation in a day.

Blessed river of salvation !
Pursue thine onward way ;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay ;
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home ;
Stay not till all the holy Proclaim, " The Lord is come ! "

SAMUEL FRANCIS SMITH, 1832.

246

Missionary Hymn.

7s & 6s, D.

From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand,
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chains.

What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile :
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown,
The heathen in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.

Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny ?
Salvation, O salvation !
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's Name.

Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole ;
Till o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

REGINALD HEBER, 1819.

247

Tune—"Martyn."

7s, D.

Jesus ! lover of my soul,
Let me to Thy bosom fly,
While the billows near me roll,
While the tempest still is high.
Hide me, O my Savior, hide,
Till the storm of life is past ;
Safe into the haven guide,
O, receive my soul at last !

Other refuge have I none ;
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee ;
Leave, ah ! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on Thee is stayed ;
All my help from Thee I bring ;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of Thy wing.

Thou, O Christ, art all I want ;
More than all in Thee I find ;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick and lead the blind.
Just and holy is Thy name,
I am all unrighteousness ;
Vile and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to pardon all my sin ;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of Thee ;
Spring Thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

CHARLES WESLEY, 1740.

248

Tune—"Bowdler."

I love to tell the story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and His glory,
Of Jesus and His love.

I love to tell the story,
Because I know 'tis true ;
It satisfies my longings
As nothing else can do.

REFRAIN.

I love to tell the story,
'Twill be my theme in glory,
To tell the old, old story
Of Jesus and His love.

I love to tell the story ;
'Tis pleasant to repeat
What seems, each time I tell it,
More wonderfully sweet.

I love to tell the story ;
For some have never heard
The message of salvation
From God's own holy Word.—REF.

I love to tell the story ;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the new, new song,
'Twill be the old, old story
That I have loved so long.—REF.

KATHERINE HANKEY, 1870.

Tune—"Hursley."

L. M.

Sun of my soul, Thou Savior dear,
It is not night, if Thou be near ;
O, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.

When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought : how sweet to rest
For ever on my Savior's breast.

Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live ;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.

If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin ;
Let Him no more lie down in sin.

Watch by the sick ; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store ;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.

Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of Thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

JOHN KEBBLE, 1820.

Tune—"Ewing."

7s & 6s, D.

Jerusalem the golden !
With milk and honey blest,
Beneath Thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppressed.
I know not, O, I know not
What joys await us there,
What radiance of glory,
What bliss beyond compare !

They stand, those halls of Zion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.

The Prince is ever in them ;
The daylight is serene ;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David ;
And there, from care released,
The song of them that triumph,
The shout of them that feast.
And they who, with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

BERNARD OF CLUNY, 1150.

251

Tune—"Dennis."

S. M.

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love ;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers ;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear ;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain ;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way ;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free ;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

JOHN FAWCETT, 1772.

Tune—"Bethany."

88, 48.

Nearer, my God, to Thee !
Nearer to Thee !
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me ;
Still all my song shall be :
Nearer, my God, to Thee !
Nearer to Thee !

Though, like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone ;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee !
Nearer to Thee !

There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven ;
All that Thou sendest me,
In mercy given ;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee !
Nearer to Thee !

Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise ;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee !
Nearer to Thee !

Or, if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be :
Nearer, my God, to Thee !
Nearer to Thee !

SARAH FLOWER ADAMS, 1841.

253

Tune—"Guidance."

88 & 78, D.

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim thro' this barren land ;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty ;
Hold me with Thy powerful hand.
[: Bread of heaven ! Bread of heaven !
Feed me till I want no more. :]

Open Thou the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing streams do flow ;
Let the fiery cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through.
[: Strong Deliverer! Strong Deliverer!
Be Thou still my strength and shield. :]

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside ;
Death of death and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side.
[: Songs of praises, songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee. :]

WILLIAM WILLIAMS, 1772

254

Tune—"America."

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing :
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

My native country thee—
Land of the noble free—
Thy name I love :
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song!
Let mortal tongues awake ;
Let all that breathe partake ;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong!

Our father's God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing :
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light ;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!

SAMUEL FRANCIS SMITH, 1832.

255

Tune—"Salzburg." 88, 78 & 48.

Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing,
Fill our hearts with joy and peace ;
Let us each, Thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace.
[: O, refresh us, :]
Traveling thro' this wilderness.

Thanks we give and adoration,
For Thy Gospel's joyful sound ;
May the fruits of Thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound.
[: May Thy presence :]
With us evermore be found.

So, whene'er the signal's given,
Us from earth to call away,
Borne on angel's wings to heaven,
Glad the summons to obey.
[: We shall surely :]
Reign with Christ in endless day.

JOHN FAWCETT, 1774.

Tune—"Old Hundredth." L. M.

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice ;
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell ;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
Without our aid He did us make ;
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto ;
Praise, laud and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? The Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure ;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

4 So over the mountains of Judah,
Along with the vines all so green,
With Esther asleep on her bosom,
And Rachel her brothers between,
With the people who hung on His teaching,
Or waited His touch or His word,
Through the row of proud Pharisees hastening,
She pressed to the feet of her Lord.

5 "Now why shouldst thou hinder the Master,"
Said Peter, "with children like these?
Thou knowest how from morn until evening
He is teaching, and healing disease."
Said Jesus, "Forbid not the children;
Permit them to come unto me!"
And He took in His arms little Esther,
And Rachel He set on His knee.

6 The care-stricken heart of the mother
Was lifted all sorrow above,
His hands kindly laid on the children,
He blest them with holiest love;
And said of the babes on His bosom,
"Of such is the kingdom of heaven;"
And strength for all duty and trial
That hour to her spirit was given.

"Crusaders' Hymn."

Lord of the sunlight, Lord of the starlight, Lord of the sea-sons, Teach me to know

How best to love Thee, How best to serve Thee, 'Mid summer's flow'rs or winter's snows.

First verse anon.
JEAN BEARL.

JEAN BEARL.

1. A welcome warm, a wel-come true, To this dear Sun-day School of ours,
2. Here we will raise our voice in song And here to God will breathe a pray'r

And may a bless-ing come to you, Like sunshine to the flow'rs.
For un-to Him do we be-long, He has us in His care.

For Je-sus will Him-self draw near And bless us, as we lin-ger here,
We are His lambs, He doth us feed, And on thro' life will gen-tly lead,

We wel-come you with joy sin-cere, To this dear school of ours.
We wel-come you with joy in-deed, To this dear house of pray'r.

All can be gentle and useful and kind,

SABBATH MORNING BELLS.

MRS. C. G. GOODWIN.

BRADBURY'S "Golden Shower," 1862.

Ho-ly Sabbath, happy morning, Joy-ful-ly the bells we hear, Sweetly call-ing, gen-tly call-ing Us to praise and pray'r. Sweetly sounding thro' each street, And float-ing on the qui-et air, Comes the dear, familiar greeting, Calling us to pray'r.

GEORGE ALLEN MATHEWS.

1. We bring now our gifts to the Mas-ter, Altho' they are small they'll be blest;
2. So we bring our offerings to Je - sus And cheerful - ly give them to - day;

He knows we are ti - ny dis - ci - ples, But loves us as well as the rest.
When placed in His hand for a blessing They'll comfort some child far a - way.

Like that lit - tle lad who gave Je - sus His two lit - tle fish - es and bread,
Tho' our gifts be not mentioned in sto - ry Like that lit - tle boy's by the sea,

Which fed all the peo-ple who gathered When Je-sus the bless-ing had said.
Our Fa-ther in heav-en will no-tice, Remem-ber, and love you and me.

[NOTE.—In using an Order of Service it is helpful to write the words on a chart made of manilla paper, or stencil them on muslin, to be hung where children can read the selections until memorized. This practice also saves material for future use and variety in the exercises. It is well to provide each child who can read with a copy of this Hymnal, for use at home and in the school.]

Little hands their part can do,
They say "Good afternoon," too.
Heads with gentle bows can say,
"How glad we are to meet today."

Hymn of Praise.

Praise Service.

Teacher.—Let us say together some things for which we praise God.

Praise God for wheat, so white and sweet, with which we make our bread ;

Praise God for yellow corn, with which His waiting world is fed ;

Praise God for fish, and flesh, and fowl, He gave to men for food ;

Praise God for every creature which He made and called it good ;

Praise God for winter's store of ice, praise God for summer's heat ;

Praise God for the fruit tree bearing seed : "To you it is for meat ;"

Praise God for all the bounty by which the world is fed ;

Praise God, ye children, all, to whom He gives your daily bread.

Motion Praise Song.

Prayer Service.

Teacher.—What is prayer ?

School.—Prayer is asking God for what we wish from the heart, and thanking Him for what He has done for us.

T.—To whom do we pray ?

S.—To our Father in heaven.

T.—How should we offer our prayer ?

S.—Reverently ; meaning what we say ; with faith.

Motion Verse.

Two little hands now let us show,
Two hands bring down just so ;
Right hand right things must do,
Left hand must help it, too ;
Both clasped in prayer each day,
And raised for good always ;
From mischief hold them tight,
Nor let them strike or fight,
But stretch them out in love,
And upward point above ;
Now fold them as we pray,
And think of all we say,
With heads all bending low,
And eyes all closed, just so,
Repeating, word for word,
The prayer of our dear Lord.

Lord's Prayer, followed by sentence prayer.

Teacher.—Let us repeat four things which we believe.

School.—I believe in God above ;
I believe in Jesus' love ;
I believe His Spirit, too,
Comes to teach me what to do ;
I believe that I must be True and good, dear Lord, like Thee.

Palestine Stars, with Map.

"When Jesus came to David's town
The light of life was shining.
So with a star we'll mark it down
Where Bethlehem's star was shining.

At Bethabara see a gleam,
The light of life was shining.
By John baptized in Jordan's stream,
The light of life was shining.

At Cana where He made the wine,
The light of life was shining.
He showed His love and power divine,
The light of life was shining.

At Sychar by the wayside well,
The light of life was shining.
Good news to others let us tell,
The light of life was shining.

A sick boy at Capernaum lay,
The light of life was shining.
With joy the father went his way,
The light of life was shining.

Bethsaida by blue Galilee,
The light of life was shining.
He fed five thousand by the sea,
The light of life was shining.

O holy land where Jesus walked,
And with His friends so sweetly talked,
And now on high beyond the sky,
The light of life is shining."

Prayers and Collects.

FROM WHICH SELECTIONS CAN BE MADE.

The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father who art in heaven. Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

O Lord most high, who art our life, our strength and joy, our ever present helper and defender, we come to confess our sins before Thee, and to pray for what we need. Give us the mind which was in Christ Jesus our Lord. Make us gentle and obedient, loving, brave, and true. Thou knowest our temptations, heavenly Father; help us to watch against them, and to win the victory over them, remembering that Thou hast promised to those, who are faithful unto death, a crown of life. Pity our weakness, O Lord, for we are Thy children and the work of Thy hands. Thou hast called us by our names; we are Thine. Send down upon us, for our present need, the dew of Thy heavenly grace. Bless us in the work before us now. Make us quick to learn and eager to be taught; may the good seed of Thy word planted in our hearts to-day bring forth abundant fruit in days to come. Thou hast made our bodies the temples of Thy presence; may our lives show forth Thy praise. Lord, hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto Thee for the sake of Thy dear Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Lord Jesus, our merciful Redeemer, who didst call children to Thee, and didst take them into Thine arms and bless them, give Thy blessing to us also, we beseech Thee, this day, and through the whole course of our lives. Grant that we may ever love Thee above all things and with our whole hearts, and that we may earnestly seek after that happiness for which we were created. Bless our dear parents, relations, teachers, pastor, and benefactors; preserve them from all evil, and direct them to all good; and grant that we may meet in Thy eternal kingdom; and to Thee, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, shall be all praise, now and for ever. Amen.

O God, our Father in heaven, we thank and praise Thee for all Thy great mercies toward us. We pray Thee, forgive our sins, and make us able and willing all our lives to obey Thy commands, and to follow the example of our Savior. O blessed Jesus, for Thy great love to all men, and especially to us children, make us to love Thee above all things, and to love others as Thou hast loved us. Bless all who take care of and teach us, and all our friends. If any are not kind to us, bless them also, and turn their unkindness into love. Let Thy blessing be upon the Church and Sunday-school; help us to remember and to do all that we are here taught. These things, and all that Thou seest we need, we ask for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Our Father in heaven, we thank Thee for all Thy mercies to us. Thou hast given us life and health and friends; Thou hast given us Thy Church, and our homes, our parents, our pastor and teachers, that we may learn to love and serve Thee. We thank Thee that we may hope to live with Thee in heaven; but most of all we thank Thee for the precious gift of Thine only Son, Jesus Christ, through whom we have all these and many more blessings. We pray Thee to forgive our sins, and make us good and holy. Help us to love Thee more than anything on earth, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. Send Thy gospel everywhere, that all may learn to know Thy love, and to do Thy will. And all we ask is for Jesus' sake. Amen.

O blessed Jesus, we thank Thee that Thou didst come and live upon earth, to save those that believe in Thee from the power of sin and Satan. We praise and bless Thee for becoming a child to save children, and to teach us how we should live. Make us truly sorry for our sins, and help us to leave them, and to do only such things as will please Thee. Every day, as we grow stronger and larger, may we grow in wisdom too as Thou didst, when Thou wast a little child like us. Bless our Church and Sunday-school; our pastor and teachers; our parents and friends. Help the preachers and teachers of the Gospel everywhere by Thy Holy Spirit, that all people on earth may soon learn to know and love Thee. May peace and good-will reign in all lands; and may all hearts and voices praise Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

Blessed Savior, we are weak and sinful, but Thou art full of mercy and love. We thank Thee for Thy teachings; for healing the sick and suffering, and raising the dead to life. We thank Thee for Thy death on the cross, and for Thy rising on the third day. We thank Thee that Thou dost remember us in heaven, and that we may pray in Thy dear name. May Thy great mercy make us sorry for our sins, and determined to lead pure and holy lives. Help us to serve Thee always, and to bring others also into Thy blessed kingdom. Bless our parents and friends, our pastor and teachers. By Thy Holy Spirit teach all people to love and serve Thee. May Thy kingdom come, and Thy will soon be done in all the earth, as it is done in heaven. And to Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be glory for ever. Amen.

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost will that not one of these little ones should perish, and hast sent Thine only begotten Son to seek and to save that which was lost, and through Him hast said, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God: most heartily we beseech Thee so to bless and govern these the children of Thy Church by Thy Holy Spirit, that they may grow in grace and in the knowledge of Thy word; protect and defend them against all danger and harm, giving Thy holy angels charge over them, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

O Lord Jesus, who, when a child, wast seated in the temple in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them and asking them questions, so rule us, we beseech Thee, by Thy Holy Spirit, that, following Thy holy example, we may love the habitation of Thy house, and the place where Thy honor dwelleth ; may we diligently seek the same, hear Thy word with gladness and faithfully keep it to the saving of our souls, and to Thy name shall be the praise. Amen.

Most merciful God, our heavenly Father, we give Thee thanks that in the sacrament of holy baptism Thou hast received us as Thy children. We give Thee thanks for the promise of the pardon of our sins and the gift of eternal life. So rule us, we beseech Thee, by Thy Holy Spirit, that we may never be unmindful of our baptismal covenant, but daily renounce every evil way, and serve Thee in true holiness, until we come at last into Thy heavenly kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

O God, who didst reveal Thyself to Thy prophet Samuel while he was yet a child, grant unto us Thy children the knowledge of Thy will, that we may ever walk in Thy commandments, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give Thee humble thanks that Thou hast been pleased to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee. Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give Thy Holy Spirit to these children, that they, being born again, and being made heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, may continue Thy servants, and attain Thy promises, through the same our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Kind heavenly Father, we thank Thee to-day for Thy loving care over us. We are Thy children ; Thou hast created us for Thy praise. Thou didst love us before we loved Thee. Thou didst send the blessed Christ into our world to save us. We thank Thee that Jesus became a little child, that He might save little children. Dear Savior, look upon us now, pardon our sins, and help us to love Thee, and to love one another. Bless our parents ; draw them nearer to Thyself. Teach us to be meek and gentle to all. And we pray for all parents and children who have not learned to love the Savior. Draw them to Thyself, by Thy word and Spirit, that they may find the way to heaven. Hear us now, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

The Lord bless us and keep us. The Lord make His face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us. The Lord lift up His countenance upon us, and give us peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

For Missions.

Lord, look in pity upon those children who have no Bibles to read, no Sunday-schools to go to, and none to teach them of the glad tidings of salvation. Bless all that is being done to give to them the advantages which we enjoy. And grant Thy blessed Spirit, that by these means all may be led to trust Jesus, to love and serve Him for ever. In His name and for His sake we ask it. Amen.

Our heavenly Father, bless Thy work in far-off lands, and all that is being done to bring the heathen world to Thee. May the idols soon be put away, and all serve Thee, the living and true God. Bless the children in mission schools. Bless our land and country and all Thy ministering servants in mission fields. May the children in Sunday-schools everywhere learn to love the name which is above every name, the dear, sweet name of Jesus, and with us find a place in Thy bright and beautiful home in heaven. We ask all for His sake. Amen.

For children in heathen lands, our brothers and sisters, we would pray. Thou hast for them, as for us, a place in Thy warm loving heart. Thy invitation is for them as for us, "Suffer the little children to come unto Me." We pray for those who have come to Thee. May they grow up, letting the light of their love to Jesus shine in their lives, that fathers and mothers may be brought to know Him. Soon may the time come when all children shall know about Jesus and love Jesus. Amen.

Heavenly Father, accept what we have to offer to the missionary work. May we give, not the money that we do not want for ourselves, but the money that we would like to spend on ourselves. In everything may we put Thee first. Help us to give our hearts to Thee. May none of us, who have so many privileges, be shut out of Thy kingdom, but unite with the number that no man can number, out of all nations, in praising Jesus and in spending eternity with Jesus. For His sake graciously hear us, forgive us, save us. Amen.

For Opening or Closing.

(REPEAT IN CONCERT.)

The bell has struck its one, two, three,
"Be still" is what it says to me,
For this is God's most holy day,
And I am here to learn His way.

Before my words of prayer are said,
I close my eyes and bow my head,
I try to think to whom I pray
And try to mean the words I say.

Father, now we come confessing
All the wrong that we have done,
And we humbly ask Thy blessing
For the sake of Thy dear Son.

Gentle Savior, God of love,
Hear us from Thy throne above,
While we meet to praise Thee here
In our Sunday-school so dear.
May the lessons taught to-day
Find us ready to obey;
Make us what we ought to be;
Lead the little lambs to Thee.

Preparation for Prayer.

To say my prayers is not to pray,
Unless I mean the words I say,
Unless I think to whom I speak,
And with my heart His favor seek.

Then let me, when I try to pray,
Not only mind the words I say,
But let me try, with watchful care,
To have my heart go with my prayer

Before my words of prayer are said,
I close my eyes and bow my head;
I'll try to think to whom I pray,
And try to mean the words I say.

Prayer.

As we come together now,
We close our eyes, our heads we bow,
We fold our hands, and pray Thee,
Lord,

To teach us from Thy holy Word ;
To be among us while we stay,
To guard and guide us every day,
And bring us home at last to Thee,
And let these eyes Thy beauty see.

Our Father who art in heaven, etc.

“Dear Father in heaven,
On this Thine own day
We little ones meet here
To praise and to pray.
O, help us to please Thee
In all that we do,
And worship aright
With hearts pure and true.

God bless our dear teachers,
And help them to be Both patient with us
And obedient to Thee.
And in Thine own time
May we all, young and old,
Be gathered above
In Thy heavenly fold.”

Only little children,
Do not us despise ;
Only come and help us
To be good and wise.
More like gentle Jesus,
Father, let us be,
Till we rest for ever,
Jesus, Lord, with Thee.

Good-by, dear friends and teachers,
May God the Father keep
His loving watch between us
Through all the coming week.
O, may we love and serve Him,
And His rich blessing seek.

“Jesus, from Thy throne on high,
Far above the bright blue sky,
Look on us with loving eye.

Be Thou with us every day,
In our work and in our play,
When we learn and when we pray.

Make us brave, without a fear,
Make us happy, full of cheer,
Sure that Thou art always near.

May our thoughts be undefiled,
May our words be true and mild,
Make us each a holy child.

May we grow, from day to day,
Glad to learn each holy way,
Ever ready to obey.

May we ever try to be
From our sinful tempers free,
Pure and gentle, Lord, like Thee.”

“Dear Savior, ere we part,
We lift our hearts to Thee
In gratitude and praise
For blessings full and free.
Go with us to our homes,
Watch o'er and keep us there,
And make us, one and all,
The children of Thy care. Amen.”

Opening or Closing Exercise, with Motions.

Two little hands now let us show,
Two little hands bring down just so ;
Right hand right things must do,
Left hand must help it, too,
Both clasped in prayer each day
And raised for good always ;
From mischief fold them tight,
Nor let them strike nor fight,
But stretch them out in love
And upward point above.

Now fold them as we pray
 And think of all we say,
 With heads all bending low
 And eyes all closed just so,
 Repeating, word for word,
 The prayer of our dear Lord :
 Our Father in heaven, etc.

Prayer for Cradle Roll.

God bless the babies on the Cradle
 Roll,
 Bless them and keep them throughout each glad day,
 Watch them in daylight and guard
 them in darkness,
 May they grow gentler and sweeter
 each day.

 (Teacher, here repeat one or more stanzas of the following.)

God will take care of you. All through the day
 He is beside you to keep you from ill ;
 Working or resting, at work or at play,
 God still is with you, and watches you still.

He will take care of you. All through the night
 He, the Good Shepherd, His flock safely keeps ;
 Darkness to Him is the same as the light ;
 He never slumbers, and He never sleeps.

He will take care of you—yes, to the end ;
 Nothing can alter His love for His own.
 Children, be glad that you have such a Friend ;
 He will not leave you one moment alone.—Frances R. Havergal.

Morning Prayers.

Father, I thank Thee for the night,
 And for the pleasant morning light ;
 For rest and food and loving care,
 And all that makes the day so fair.
 Help me to do the things I should ;
 To be to others kind and good ;
 In all I do in work or play,
 To grow more loving every day,
 For Jesus' sake. Amen.

 Now I rise to work and play,
 I pray Thee bless me all the day ;
 To keep from sin, to do some good,
 To love and serve Thee as I should,
 For Jesus' sake. Amen.
 —Rev. Chas. Roads.

 We thank Thee for our daily bread,
 And all the blessings on us shed ;
 We pray Thee fill us with Thy love,
 And guide us to our home above,
 For Jesus' sake. Amen.

 Almighty God, the Maker of every thing in heaven and earth, the darkness goes away, and the daylight comes, at Thy command ; Thou art good, and Thou doest good continually.

I thank Thee that Thou hast taken care of me through the night, and that I am alive and well this morning.

Save me, O God, from evil all this day long ; and may I love and serve Thee for ever, for the sake of Jesus Christ Thy Son. Amen.

Prayer Before Divine Service.

Direct me now, O gracious Lord,
 To hear aright Thy Holy Word :
 Assist Thy minister to preach,
 And let Thy Holy Spirit teach ;
 And let eternal life be found
 By all who hear the joyful sound.

Grace Before Meals.

Be present at our table, Lord ;
 Be here, and everywhere, adored.
 Thy creatures bless ; and grant that we May feast in paradise with Thee.

Amen.

Prayer at Bed-Time.

Now I lay me down to sleep,
 I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to keep ;
 If I should die before I wake,
 I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to take.
 And this I ask for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Offering Exercises.

(It is well to take the collection early in the session. It may be done by having a box at the door, into which the pennies are dropped as the children enter. But a better way is to make the offering at such a time that a song, prayer or Scripture verses may teach the significance of giving to the Lord. The box may be passed or the children may march around to it and drop their pennies in as they pass it. There are many styles of collection boxes—barrels, churches, banks, jugs, glass banks, etc.)

"They have mouths but they speak not ;
 eyes have they but they see not.

They have ears but they hear not; noses have they but they smell not.

They have hands but they handle not; feet have they but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat.

They that make them are like unto them, and so is every one that trusteth in them.

But our God is in the heaven. He will bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great.

We will bless the Lord from this time forth and forever more."

The Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into Hades; the third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Twenty-third Psalm.

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Ten Commandments.

First.—Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Second.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Third.—Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

Fourth.—Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Fifth. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Sixth.—Thou shalt not kill.

Seventh.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Eighth.—Thou shalt not steal.

Ninth.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Tenth.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

The Beatitudes.

Blessed are the poor in spirit :
 For theirs is the kingdom of God.
 Blessed are they that mourn :
 For they shall be comforted.
 Blessed are the meek :
 For they shall inherit the earth.
 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness :
 For they shall be filled.
 Blessed are the merciful :
 For they shall obtain mercy.
 Blessed are the pure in heart :
 For they shall see God.
 Blessed are the peacemakers :

For they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake :

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Outlines of the Early Life of Our Lord.

A. Opening Hymn.

(For entire class. Tune, Dornance, or any 8s or 7s appropriate and easily sung.)

Here we come to learn of Jesus,
Who was once a little child;
May we be like Him, so holy,
Pure and gentle, meek and mild.

Precious lessons for the children
Here we find, in God's own Word;
May we keep with us forever
Wondrous truths that we have heard.

B. The Childhood of Jesus.

By Julia H. Johnston.

(In conducting this review of the early life of Christ, the teacher of a large class may give beforehand a certain number of answers to be learned, to groups of children who will respond in concert; while in a small class, one or more answers may be given by individual scholars. The questions should be asked by the teacher, or, if a subdivided class, by the teachers of each group to whom parts have been assigned. Some answers, if desired, may be taught to the entire department, to be given in concert, such as the opening one.)

What did the angel of the Lord say should be the name of the Savior?

Thou shalt call His name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins.

Where was Christ born?

In Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king.

Where did His mother, Mary, lay the Child?

She laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Who was abiding in the field?

Shepherds keeping watch over their flocks by night.

Who came to them?

The angel of the Lord, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them.

What did the angel say?

I bring you good tidings of great joy. Unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Savior which is Christ the Lord.

What was the song of the multitude of the heavenly host?

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good-will toward men.

What did the shepherds say?

Let us now go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing which is come to pass.

Whom did they find?

Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger.

After eight days, what did Mary and Joseph do with Jesus?

They brought him to Jerusalem to present Him unto the Lord.

Who welcomed Him there?

A man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon.

What had been promised Simeon?

That he should not see death till he had seen the Lord's Christ.

What did he do to Jesus?

Then took he Him up in his arms and said, "Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, for my eyes have seen thy salvation."

Who else rejoiced to see the Holy Child?

One Anna, a prophetess. She coming in, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord.

What other visitors from far, came seeking the Child Jesus?

Behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, "Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east and have come to worship him."

When they heard that Jesus was to be born in Bethlehem, how did they find Him?

The star which they saw in the east went before them till it came and stood over where the young Child was.

When they saw Him, with Mary His mother, what did they do?

They fell down and worshiped Him, and presented unto Him gifts: gold and frankincense and myrrh.

What did God tell Joseph about Herod, who had heard from the wise men of the birth of the King of the Jews?

Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.

What did Joseph do, at God's command?

He took the young Child and His mother by night, and departed into Egypt.

What did Herod do, that he might destroy Jesus?

He slew all the children that were in Bethlehem and in all the coasts thereof from two years old and under.

When Herod was dead, and God called Joseph back, to what place did he go?

He came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth.

What is said of Jesus there?

The Child grew and waxed strong in spirit, and the grace of God was upon Him.

What happened when He was twelve years old?

They went up to Jerusalem.

On returning from the feast and missing Jesus from the company, where did they find Him?

In the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them and asking them questions.

What did those who heard Him think?

They were astonished at His understanding and His answers.

How did Jesus answer Mary's question, "Why hast thou dealt thus with us?"

"Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?"

What did He do then?

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them.

All repeat in concert:

And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man.

C. Lessons from Jesus' Childhood.

(Recitations for five scholars.)

NO. 1. HUMILITY.

How lowly was the Stranger,

How humble was His birth!

His cradle was a manger,

The Lord of heaven and earth.

O Savior, may we learn of Thee,

And meek and lowly may we be.

NO. 2. PEACE.

The Prince of Peace came, bringing

Good-will to men below,

And we should keep it ringing,

The song the angels know.

Lord, give to us this blessed peace,

And make all strife and anger cease.

No. 3 LOVE.

The greatest lesson taught us,
 The dearest, holiest one,
 Is love—the love that bought us
 The love of God's own Son.
 O hear us, Savior, as we pray,
 And give us loving hearts to-day.

No. 4. OBEDIENCE.

The Lord of life and glory
 Has taught us to obey ;
 How sweet the Gospel story
 Of all that early day !
 And we would be obedient, too,
 And do what Christ would have us do.

No. 5 WISDOM.

In wisdom ever growing,
 The Savior Christ we see ;
 To us for ever showing
 What He would have us be.

Lord, teach us all Thy will to know,
 In wisdom daily may we grow.

D. Singing—The Blessed Story.

(To same air as the opening hymn verses.)

Sing His praise, the Lord of glory,
 Tell again His life below ;
 May we love the blessed story,
 May we learn how much we owe.

Come, Lord Jesus, teach and guide us,
 Make us daily more like Thee ;
 As we journey, walk beside us,
 Till in heaven Thy face we see.

“Symbols of the Holy Spirit.”

(This exercise can be given as a series of recitations by the little children. It would be instructive, and add interest as well to the exercise, to have the Class give the Scriptural responses in unison.)

1. The Holy Spirit cometh,
 Like the fair and heavenly Dove,
 To make me pure and gentle,
 And meek and full of love.

John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.
 John 1 : 32.

2. The Holy Spirit cometh,
 Like a bright and burning light,
 To make me shine for Jesus,
 To guide my feet aright.

Arise, shine ; for thy light is come.
 Isa. 60 : 1.

3. The Holy Spirit cometh,
 Like the fresh and healthful breeze,
 To strengthen me for service,
 To do as God shall please.

The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth : so is every one that is born of the Spirit. John 3 : 8.

4. The Holy Spirit cometh,
 Like the oil that once was shed,
 A sign of consecration,
 Upon the kingly head.

The anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you. 1 John 2 : 27.

5. The Holy Spirit cometh,
Like the dewdrops on the flowers,
That I may grow for Jesus
In these, life's early hours.

I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily. Hos. 14 : 5.

6. The Holy Spirit cometh,
Like the rivers, deep and wide,
That bear a gracious blessing
Upon their sparkling tide.

Thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. Isa. 58 : 11.

7. The Holy Spirit cometh,
Like a soft and tender voice,
To teach me truth and duty,
And help me to rejoice.

A still small voice. 1 Kings 19 : 12.

All.

The Holy Spirit cometh
To every little child
Whose heart is ever ready
To hear his whisper mild.

How much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? Luke 11 : 13.

Motion Exercises.

(In these exercises the words suggest certain motions, such as extending the hands, pointing to different parts of the body as they are mentioned, etc. Little children will enjoy these exercises, and can be led to enter into them heartily. If a teacher has difficulty in using them, it may be because the children are too old, or because she herself does not enter into the exercises with enthusiasm.)

I.

The Children's Chautauqua Drill.

1. (Right hand raised) "Lift your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the Lord."
2. (Clap hands once.) "Oh, clap your hands, all ye people."
3. (Fold arms.) "Thy word have I hid in mine heart."
4. (Stand up.) "Stand up and bless the Lord your God."
5. (Join tips of fingers over head.) "His banner over me is love."

6. (Put hands by the side.) "Happy is the man that findeth wisdom."
7. (Right hand stretched out.) "Length of days is in her right hand."
8. (Left hand stretched out.) "And in her left hand riches and honor."
9. (Clap hands three times.) "Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace."
10. (Sit down.) "Him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne."

God's Gifts to Children.

Teacher.—What has God given to little children?

School.—Two little hands¹ for loving labor given;

Two little feet² to walk the road to heaven;

Two little eyes³ to read God's holy Word;

Two little lips⁴ to praise the blessed Lord;

One little soul⁵ to serve with all its might;

So should we live, always⁶ in Jesus' sight.

1. Extend the hands forward, with palms upward. 2. Bend forward, and point toward the feet. 3. Place the forefinger of each hand under the eyes. 4. Put the same fingers upon the under lip. 5. Fold hands across the breast. 6. Point upward with both hands.

For additional motion exercises with songs, see Motion Songs (No. 182, etc.) and Processionals (No. 172, etc.).

(If a child has had a birthday during the week, he may bring as many pennies for the Birthday Bank as he is years old. As he stands before the school, the following may be repeated by all. For other hymns see "Birthday.")

A Birthday Service.

The scholar's name may be spelled upon the blackboard, or formed of blocks, as the class repeats Bible verses.)

A Promise.

God will take care of you all through the year,

Crowning each day with His kindness and love,

Sending you blessings and shielding
from fear,

Leading you on to the bright home above.

F. R. Havergal.

Singing — "We Are Growing"
(No. 88), or

Happy Children.

TUNE, Harwell.

We are children, happy children,
Singing, singing as we go.

'Tis our Father's hand that leads us,
Leads us through this world below.

When a sinful world around us
Tempts our little feet to stray,
By His Spirit He will keep us
In the straight and narrow way.

If we try to follow Jesus,
Try to serve Him here below,
Where He lives and reigns forever,
Singing, singing we shall go.

We are children, happy children,
Singing, singing as we go.

'Tis our Father's hand that leads us,
Leads us through this world below.

The Sabbath.

Which is the Fourth Commandment?

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

Whose day is this?

This holy time is God's alone;
He blessed and called this day His own.

What are we to remember?

That on this day Christ left the dead;
The Lord is risen, as He said.

How shall we keep God's day holy?

By prayer and praise and peaceful rest,
And doing what will please Him best.

Where do we go upon the Sabbath?

To God's own house, to pray and praise,
To hear His Word and learn His ways.

Is this a happy day?

This day is like to heaven above,
So full of joy and peace and love.

PRAYER.

Lord, teach us how to keep Thy day,
And lead and bless us all the way.

The Map of Palestine Illumined.

BY E. E. HEWITT.

When Jesus came to David's town,
The Light of Life was shining;
So with a star we'll mark it down
Where Bethlehem's star was shining.

At Bethabara see a gleam,
The Light of Life was shining;
By John baptized in Jordan's stream,
The Light of Life was shining.

At Cana, where He made the wine,
The Light of Life was shining;
He showed His love and power divine,
The Light of Life was shining.

At Sychar, by the wayside well,
The Light of Life was shining;
Good news to others let us tell,
The Light of Life is shining.

A sick boy at Capernaum lay,
The Light of Life was shining;

With joy the father went his way,
The Light of Life was shining.

Bethsaida, by blue Galilee,
The Light of Life was shining;
He fed five thousand by the sea,
The Light of Life was shining.

O Holy Land, where Jesus walked,
And with His friends so sweetly talked!

And now on high, beyond the sky,
The Light of Life is shining.

—The Westminster Jr. Quart.

NOTE.—As each lesson is taught, have a child recite a verse and place a gilt star on the map. Sing the hymn, "The Light of the World is Jesus," Gospel Hymns, with these recitations.

Supplemental Lessons for the Pupils of the Elementary Grades.

Why Needed. There are certain fundamental truths which it is believed that the pupils of the beginners, primary, and junior ages should know, and when these truths can be expressed in Bible words, whether in the form of Bible verses or hymns, they are still more valuable to the child. In addition to the memorizing of Bible verses and hymns the pupils of the junior grades need to be taught facts about the Bible and drilled in handling it.

To provide for this teaching these supplemental lessons have been outlined. They are intended to be supplemental to the "special International Two-Year Beginners' Lessons" in the beginners' grades, and are supplemental to the regular International lesson in the primary and junior grades.

Why Graded Lessons. Teachers of children, even when the pupils were not graded into classes and departments, have taught to their pupils something beside the regular Bible lesson. Such lessons, whatever they were, might be called supplemental lessons. Such teachers were trying to meet the needs of their pupils but did not do it in a systematic way.

The study of the child and the desire to give each succeeding class or group of classes in these departments the same lesson has led to the systematizing of the work and the grading of such supplemental lessons so that the truth taught, the Bible verses and hymns learned, and the facts acquired may be suited to the needs and the capacities of the pupils.

The History of These Outlines. The outline as here presented is the outcome of years of experimentation. It was first arranged by the International Primary Department and presented at the International Convention in 1902. It has since been carefully revised as experience has shown the need, has been again endorsed by the Elementary workers of the country and by the Executive Committee of the International Sunday-school Association.

How Taught. These verses should be made into interesting lessons, that is, they should not only be explained but developed as other lessons are that the pupil may grasp the truth of the text. Then the text should be thoroughly memorized by the pupil.

By the use of pictures and illustrations, and in the junior grades by manual work connected with the geography, these supplemental lessons are very interesting to the pupils.

These supplemental lessons are not for rote memory work.

Parents should cooperate with teachers.

Promotion. As the supplemental lessons are the grade work of the pupils, proficiency in these lessons should be coupled with age, ability, and development as a basis for promotion from class to class within a department or from department to department.

If a record of the pupils' knowledge of the supplemental lessons is kept by the class teacher, and parents encourage their children, the pupils will be stimulated to do better work and the progress of the pupil can be carefully noted.

A certificate may be given to the pupils from class to class or department to department as recognition for the work accomplished.

Extra Memory Work. This outline provides for enough material for the average school, if the lessons are not used as mere rote work, and if the texts are explained and developed as intended. At the same time some may be able to do more, while others may wish to have other material to draw upon. This is provided for in the outline under "Extra Memorization."

Outlines of Graded Supplementary Lessons for the Elementary Grades.

ARRANGEMENT OF MATERIAL FOR YEARLY GRADE WORK.

NOTE—The Cradle Roll covers the years up to three or thereabouts, and during this time the teaching is done in the home. The success of all the following work depends on home coöperation.

BEGINNERS.

Pupils Three, Four and Five Years Old.

NOTE—Children at this age are not yet ready for memory work as such, and the following verses have been selected, that through them certain fundamental truths may be taught. These texts may be developed and taught in groups of three, all in one year, and then repeated each year, or one group may be used each year for three consecutive years. In any case adhere to the order of the texts as given.

FIRST GROUP.

God's Love, 1 John 4: 8. (Last Clause.)
 God's Care, Psalm 4: 8.
 God's Goodness, Psalm 145: 9. (First Clause.)

SECOND GROUP.

The Children's Invitation, Mark 10: 14.
 Love to Others, 1 John 4: 11.
 Love Shown by Giving, Matt. 10: 8. (Last Clause.)

THIRD GROUP.

Love Shown by Obedience, Col. 3: 20.
 Test of Love. Prov. 20: 11. (First Clause.)
 Love Shown by Kindness, Eph. 4: 32. (First Clause.)

PRIMARY.

NOTE—While it is expected that these verses will all be memorized by each pupil, the development of their meaning and the impression of the truth which they contain is of the first importance. When finally memorized, the verses will then stand in the mind of the child as a verbal expression of the truth which has been taught.

Review of Life of Christ Grouped in Periods.

Have a note-book made by each pupil of the Life of Christ, using the outline taught in the third year; dividing it, for convenience, into five periods: 1. From the Annunciation of Mary to the eighteen years in Nazareth. Opposite this have map with journeys of period traced upon it. Suitable pictures for events given. 2. From Baptism to Sermon on the Mount. Names of Apostles written and pictures inserted. 3. From raising Jairus' daughter to the Transfiguration. Map of Galilee showing Mount Hermon. 4. From the parable of the Good Samaritain to anointing by Mary at Bethany. Mark 10: 14 and Luke 10: 30-35 written. 5. From the Triumphal Entry to the Ascension. Map of Jerusalem and vicinity with journeys traced. The Seven Words from the Cross memorized and written. The eleven appearances of Christ after His Resurrection written in order as they occurred, and memorized.

WINTER QUARTER.

What the Bible says About Sin and Salvation.

NOTE—This is intended as a preparation for Decision Day, or for leading classes or individuals to decide to give their lives to Christ. The outline needs five or six weeks for its proper development, but should not be used at all unless it is intended to give each pupil an opportunity to make the decision. The term Decision Day is used for convenience simply and not to prescribe a plan or method.

Before Decision Day: What is sin? I John 3: 4. James 4: 17. Who have sinned? Romans 3: 10-23. The consequences of sin. Galatians 6: 7. Proverbs 5: 22. Proverbs 28: 13. Isaiah 59: 2. The remedy for sin. I John 1: 9. John 3: 16.

Decision Day: I Cor. 4: 11. Matt. 7: 24-27. I John 1-9. John 3: 16. After Decision Day: How the new life shows itself. John 15: 10. 14. The new life strengthened. John 14: 16, 17, 26.

Hymn: "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

SUGGESTIONS FOR SUMMER QUARTERS.

FIRST YEAR.

Locate all the verses that have been learned, having the reference associated with each. The Traveler's Psalm, 121, explained and committed to memory. The hymn, "O Day of Rest and Gladness," memorized, and "I Think When I Read That Sweet Story of Old," reviewed.

A scrap-book made by each pupil in which the Psalm and the two hymns are written and illustrated with suitable pictures would be interesting.

SECOND YEAR.

Review contents of all Old Testament Books and memorize Numbers 6: 24-26; Deuteronomy 6: 4-5 and 33: 27 (to word "arms"). Joshua 1: 9. Psalm 8. Isaiah 9: 6-7. Malachi 3: 10, 16, 17. The map of Palestine drawn in outline, the seas and river named, and the principal places touched in the year's study located. Tell the story of Jacob's vision and have "Nearer, My God, to Thee" learned. Could be written in scrap-book and illustrated.

THIRD YEAR.

Select three heroes of the Cross who have carried on the work begun by the Apostles and tell the stories of their lives briefly, but vividly. Have "Faith of our Fathers" (first and third verses) memorized. A scrap-book called "Heroes of the Cross" might be made and in it the journeys of the Apostles and of the later missionaries traced on maps bought or made for the purpose, and a brief outline of the life written opposite. "Watchman, Tell Us of the Night" memorized.

FOURTH YEAR.

Take the hymn "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," and tell of the missionary work being done by your Church in each one of the countries mentioned in the hymn. Pictures of missionaries and buildings could be mounted on cards as the lessons are taught. Review the life of Moses briefly and have the Exodus map made. Give brief outline of the forty years' wanderings, telling what happened at Rephidim, Sinai. Kadesh-Barnea, Mount Hor, Mount Nebo and the fords of the Jordan. Trace journey on map. Start scrapbook with map and outline of journey on opposite page. Have "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah" learned. Could be written in scrapbook and illustrated with incidents of the Exodus story which explains its references.

CHOICE FOR EXTRA MEMORIZATION.

(See also Summer Quarters.)

Scripture. Psalms 1, 19, 24, 90. Matt. 6: 25-34. John 14: 1-4. 1 Cor. 13, and 15: 51-58.

Memory Selections.

For Use in the Home Circle and School.

Thousands can testify to the truth of what former President Eliot, of Harvard College, has said—that the short memory gems learned when a boy at school have gone with him through life, and have done him much good in the hour of temptation.

Beautiful thoughts, like seed, dropped in the soil of the mind, bear pleasant fruit in after years. How important to gather into the store house of memory the ripe sayings, sententious wisdom, and teachings of experience!

For this reason there are given herewith memory gems, which parents, teachers, and friends of little children can give to them.

“It is what a pupil does for himself, not what is done for him, that educates him.”

“There is nothing so kindly as kindness
And nothing so royal as truth.”
—ALICE CARY.

“Quiet people are welcome everywhere.”

“One cannot always be a hero, but one can always be a man.”—
GOETHE.

“For the world is full of roses,
And the roses full of dew,
And the dew is full of heavenly love
That drips for me and you.”
—JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY.

“There is always work
And tools to work withal
For those who will.”
—LOWELL.

“Who ran to help me when I fell,
And would some pretty story tell.
And kiss the place to make it well?
My mother.”

“All one’s life is music if we touch the notes right and in tune.”
—RUSKIN.

“Kind words are like sunbeams,
That sparkle as they fall;
And loving smiles are sunbeams,
A light of joy to all.”

“Do your best, your very best,
And do it every day,
Little boys and little girls,
That is the wisest way.”

“The world wants men—true men—
Who cannot be bought or sold.
Men who scorn to violate trust;
Genuine Gold.”

“If wisdom’s ways you wisely seek,
Five things observe with care:
To whom you speak, of whom you speak,
And how, and when, and where.”

“A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market.”—LAMB.

“By-and-by is a very bad boy,
Shun him at once and forever;
For they who travel with By-and-by Soon come to the house of Never.”

"What's brave,
What's noble,
Let's do it."
—SHAKESPEARE.

"And isn't it, my boy or girl,
The wisest, bravest plan,
Whatever comes, or doesn't come,
To do the best you can?"
—PHŒBE CARY.

"Kind words are but the little seeds,
Yet these spring up and bear kind deeds."

"So nigh is grandeur to the dust,
So near is God to man,
When duty whispers low, 'Thou must,'
The youth replies, 'I can.'"

"My crown is in my heart, not on my head,
Not decked with diamonds and India stones,
Nor to be seen; my crown is called content,
A crown it is, that seldom kings enjoy."

"I pray the prayer of Plato old,
God make thee beautiful within,
And let thine eyes the good behold
In everything save sin."
—WHITTIER.

"Our to-days and yesterdays are the blocks with which we build."
—LONGFELLOW.

"The chief want in life is somebody who will make us do the best we can."
—EMERSON.

"I live for those who love me,
For those who know me true,
For the heaven that smiles above me
And awaits my spirit, too;

For the cause that lacks assistance,
Against the wrongs that need resistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I can do."

"One day at a time. It's a wholesome rhyme; a good one to live by, a day at a time."
—H. H. JACKSON.

"The world is happy,
The world is wide,
Kind hearts are beating
On every side."
—LOWELL.

"If a string is in a knot,
Patience will untie it;
Patience can do many things,
Did you ever try it?
If 'twas sold at any shop
I should like to buy it,
But you and I must find our own,
No other can supply it."

"Howe'er it be, it seems to me,
'Tis only noble to be good;
Kind hearts are more than coro-
nets,
And simple faith than Norman blood."
—ALFRED TENNYSON.

Speak the truth!
Speak it boldly, never fear;
Speak it so that all may hear;
In the end it shall appear,
Truth is best in age and youth.
Speak the truth!

Speak the truth!
Truth is beautiful and brave,
Strong to bless, and strong to save,
Falsehood is a coward knave;
From it turn thy steps in youth—
Follow truth!

"Do not think of your faults; still less of others' faults; in every person who comes near you, look for what is good and strong; honor that; rejoice in it; and, as you can, try to imitate it; and your faults will drop off like dead leaves, when the time comes."—RUSKIN.

Loving Jesus, meek and mild,
Look on me, a little child.
Make me gentle as Thou art,
Come and live within my heart.
Take my childish hand in Thine;
Guide these little feet of mine.
So shall all my happy days
Sing their pleasant songs of praise.
—CHARLES WESLEY.

"Kindness is the music of good will to men, and on this harp the smallest fingers may play Heaven's sweetest tunes on earth."

"Do not look for wrong and evil,
You will find them if you do;
As you measure for your neighbor
He will measure back to you."

"Whatever mine ears can hear,
Whatever mine eyes can see
In nature, so bright with beauty and light,
Has a message of love for me."

"Come, my love, and do not spurn
From a little flower to learn;
Let your temper be as sweet
As the lily at your feet;
Be as gentle, be as mild,
Be a modest, simple child."

"If it drizzles and pours,
Is that any reason
The weather indoors
Should be dull, like the season?
There is something makes bright
The cloudiest places;
Can you guess? 'Tis the light
Of the smiles on your faces."

HOW TO BE HAPPY.

Are you almost disgusted
With life, little man?
I will tell you a wonderful trick
That will bring you contentment
if anything can—
Do something for somebody,
quick;
Do something for somebody,
quick!

Are you awfully tired
With play, little girl?
Weary, discouraged and sick?
I'll tell you the loveliest game in the world—
Do something for somebody,
quick;
Do something for somebody,
quick!

Though it rains like the rain
Of the flood, little man,
And the clouds are forbidding and thick,
You can make the sun shine in your soul, little man—
Do something for somebody,
quick!
Do something for somebody,
quick!

Though the skies are like brass
Overhead, little girl,
And the walk like a well-heated brick;
And are earthly affairs in a terrible whirl?
Do something for somebody,
quick;
Do something for somebody,
quick!
